At the Movies 2025: F1

Jon Rychener

Philippians 3:10-14 (NIV): I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

“So, what is it about?”

What is it (this life) all about?

Philippians 3:10-11 (NIV): I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

The Ways of Winners

Way #1: Recognize What Life's All About

Philippians 3:10 (AMP): And this, so that I may know Him [experientially, becoming more thoroughly acquainted with Him, understanding the remarkable wonders of His Person more completely]...

Way #2: Refuse to Settle for Less

Philippians 3:12 (NIV): Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

Psalms 51:12 (NIV): Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Way #3: Refocus on What's Ahead

Philippians 3:13 (NIV): Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead,

Way #4: Resolve to Finish Well

Philippians 3:14 (NIV): I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.
