Christmas Production 2025: The Great Announcement

Jon Rychener

Luke 2:8-9 (NIV): And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Luke 2:10-11 (NIV): But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord."

Three Reasons Why Jesus' Birth Stands Apart From Every Other Birth

Reason #1: Because It's Good News

Luke 2:10-11 (NIV): But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord."

Our greatest need is to be forgiven for our sins, so God sent us a Savior.

Reason #2: Because It Brings Great Joy

Luke 2:10-11 (NIV): But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord."

We find great joy in knowing Jesus not only as Savior, but as Lord.

Reason #3: Because It's For Everyone

Luke 2:10-11 (NIV): But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord."

Jesus came for all people—every age, every nationality, every religion, everyone.
